

Feel free to use this calculator to guide you as to my charges. Please see the total as a ball park figure. Prices, particularly travel, will often change from month to month so you will need to submit your calculation for verification. Use the click "Submit by Email" at the bottom of the page to do so.

My prices assume that I am available to the client for the entire day. I am very happy to fit around my clients requirements. All prices are in New Zealand dollars
